SYLVANIA GOING GREEN: ECOLOGICALLY FRIENDLY FLUORESCENT BULBS

Some time ago, Sylvania lighting came out with fluorescent bulbs that contained less mercury and it seems that many other manufacturers have followed this ecological trend. It's a great thing because it means that less mercury will make its way into our drinking water and landfills. With the advent of higher electrical costs and ecological concerns, many businesses are looking for ways to save energy and the environment with lighting.

Please visit Flat Lands to see our selection of ecologically friendly fluorescent bulbs!
